Dear Jeanne:

Enclosed are the original and one copy of the 2020 Exempt Organization returns, as follows...

2020 Form 990

2020 Massachusetts Form PC

Each original should be dated, signed and filed in accordance with the filing instructions. The copy should be retained for your files.

Instructions for filing the above forms are furnished for easy reference.

The returns were prepared from the information furnished by you. Please review the returns before signing to ensure that there are no omissions or misstatements of material facts. If you note anything which may require a change to the returns, please contact us before filing them.

Prior to preparing your returns, we asked questions to determine if you had any foreign financial accounts requiring disclosure with the tax returns on IRS Form 8938 and filing of U.S. Treasury Form FinCEN 114. We have prepared your tax returns based on the information you provided in response to these questions. If you indicated that you have no reportable interest in foreign financial accounts or you have not responded to our inquiries related to this request, your tax returns were prepared without any disclosure for these accounts. Otherwise, we have prepared your tax returns in accordance with the information you provided to us and have made the appropriate disclosure on your return and have prepared Form FinCEN 114 and/or Form 8938 and the accompanying filing instructions.

Please be advised that there are significant civil and criminal penalties for non-disclosure and reporting of such accounts. Baker Newman Noyes will not be liable for any penalties resulting from your failure to provide us with accurate and timely information regarding such accounts or to timely file the required disclosure forms.

Tax Shelter Disclosure: Please remember that, although tax shelters can be perfectly legal, the IRS monitors this area closely, and disclosure requirements must be given the utmost consideration. As a taxpayer, you are required to disclose any transaction that the IRS deems "reportable." In general, reportable transactions include: certain listed or potential tax avoidance transactions; transactions that require keeping secret an advisor's tax strategies; transactions in which fees are contingent on your realization of tax benefits; and transactions that result in claiming certain sizable casualty losses.

If you have questions or believe that you may have participated in a reportable transaction, please contact your advisor at Baker Newman Noyes. In addition, the IRS maintains a tax shelter hotline that you may contact anonymously at (866) 775-7474. You are responsible for ensuring that you have properly disclosed all reportable transactions. Failure to make required disclosures will result in substantial penalties.

Furthermore, Baker Newman Noyes will not be liable where penalties arise from your failure to disclose reportable transactions. Please remember that our ability to assist you is limited to the information that you have provided us. Thus, your tax returns will not contain the appropriate disclosures unless you notify us about potential reportable transactions. Please contact us with any information or concerns about reportable transactions before filing your returns.

We sincerely appreciate this opportunity to serve you. Please contact us if you have any questions or if we may be of further assistance.

Very truly yours,

Nicholas E. Porto

Since 2003, the Compensation Committee has engaged a human resources consultant to conduct this analysis. Objectives of the analysis are to assess the compositeness of the total cash compensation levels of the senior leadership team, develop market based competitive salary ranges for all executive positions, and ensure that the annual incentive opportunities, if there are any, are competitive and reasonable.

This process is the responsibility of the Compliance Officer. A conflict of interest disclosure form is submitted to all leadership, board members, board committee members, employed physicians, medical directors and certain employees in key positions annually to be completed. Reminders are sent to all persons of interest to ensure that all conflict of interest disclosure forms are completed and collected.

Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 15:

Any compensation paid to the trustees, directors, officers or key employees of the Organization is subject to the oversight and decisions of Covenant Health, a related tax-exempt organization. Every two-to-three years the Compensation Committee of the Covenant Health Board of Directors engages an external consultant to provide competitive market data from various survey sources, which is then used to develop recommendations for changes to the compensation program. Since 2003, the Compensation Committee has engaged a human resources consultant to conduct this analysis. Objectives of the analysis are to assess the compositeness of the total cash compensation levels of the senior leadership team, develop market based competitive salary ranges for all executive positions, and ensure that the annual incentive opportunities, if there are any, are competitive and reasonable.

Form 990, Part VI, Section C, Line 19:

The Organization's Form 990, governing documents, conflict of interest policy, and financial statements are made available to the public upon request. The Organization's Form 990 is also made available on the website of its parent organization, Covenant Health, at the following web address:
