In its 2019 tax year, the Organization determined that its restricted investment holdings, which were previously designated as endowment funds on Schedule D, Part V, did not meet the terms and definitions of endowment funds as provided in IRS Guidance and the Form 990 instructions.

Accordingly, the Organization's 2019 ending balance for endowment funds was corrected to an appropriate zero-value. This continues to be the case in 2021; the figures reported on Schedule D, Part V have been maintained only to reflect the carryforward of the Organization's historic filings.

Temporarily restricted funds continue to be reported separately on Form 990, Part X, Line 28. Restricted net assets, as were previously reported as endowment funds, are largely composed of restricted grants used to provide housing solutions to elderly, ill, or disenfranchised persons.

Part X, Line 2:

Covenant and its member organizations are considered not-for-profit corporations as described in Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code and are exempt from federal income taxes on related income pursuant to Section 501(a) of the Code, except as noted below.

Tax-exempt organizations could be required to record an obligation for income taxes as the result of a tax position they have historically taken on various tax exposure items including unrelated business income or tax status. Under guidance issued by the Financial Accounting Standards Board, assets and liabilities are established for uncertain tax positions taken or positions expected to be taken in income tax returns when such positions are judged to not meet the "more-likely-than-not" threshold, based upon the technical merits of the position. Estimated interest and penalties, if applicable, related to uncertain tax positions are included as a component of income tax expense.

The System has evaluated the position taken on its filed tax returns. The System has concluded no uncertain income tax positions exist at December 31, 2021.
