Part V, line 4:

The Organization's endowment funds are to be used to assist the needy through education and/or projects for the poor, as determined by the Vice President of Missions and approved by the President of Covenant Health.

In its 2022 tax year, the Organization received the endowment funds and beneficial interests in trust-assets previously held by Youville Life Care (a/k/a Youville Hospital); Covenant Health has been determined to be the current rightful legacy beneficiary of these endowments. Accordingly, these funds have been included within Covenant Health's restricted net assets and have also been reported on this Schedule D as permanent endowments. These funds are to be used in furtherance of the provision of health services, including acute care, nursing homes, and home health services.

Part X, Line 2:

Covenant and its member organizations are considered not-for-profit corporations as described in Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code and are exempt from federal income taxes on related income pursuant to Section 501(a) of the Code, except as noted below.

St. Joseph Hospital Corporate Services, Inc., a wholly-owned subsidiary of Nashua, is a for-profit organization, which is subject to federal and state income taxes. St. Joseph Hospital Corporate Services, Inc. has net operating loss (NOL) carryforwards for tax purposes. The NOLs are not anticipated to be utilized so the amounts have been fully offset with a reserve.

CHIL, a wholly-owned subsidiary, is domiciled in the Cayman Islands. No income taxes are levied in the Cayman Islands and CHIL has been granted an exemption for any taxes that might be introduced. Accordingly, no provision for income taxes has been made in the accompanying financial statements.

Tax-exempt organizations could be required to record an obligation for income taxes as the result of a tax position they have historically taken on various tax exposure items including unrelated business income or tax status. Under guidance issued by the Financial Accounting Standards Board, assets and liabilities are established for uncertain tax positions taken or positions expected to be taken in income tax returns when such positions are judged to not meet the "more-likely-than-not" threshold, based upon the technical merits of the position.

The System has evaluated the position taken on its filed tax returns. The System has concluded no uncertain income tax positions exist at December 31, 2024.
