The Organization's current endowment and restricted funds are to be used for property renovations and equipment upgrades.

Part X, Line 2:

Covenant and its member organizations are considered not-for-profit corporations as described in Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code and are exempt from federal income taxes on related income pursuant to Section 501(a) of the Code.

Tax-exempt organizations could be required to record an obligation for income taxes as the result of a tax position they have historically taken on various tax exposure items including unrelated business income or tax status. Under guidance issued by the Financial Accounting Standards Board, assets and liabilities are established for uncertain tax positions taken or positions expected to be taken in income tax returns when such positions are judged to not meet the "more-likely-than-not" threshold, based upon the technical merits of the position. Estimated interest and penalties, if applicable, related to uncertain tax positions are included as a component of income tax expense.

The System has evaluated the position taken on its filed tax returns. The System has concluded no uncertain income tax positions exist at December 31, 2024.

Part I, Line 2:
In furtherance of its mission to respond with compassionate care and dignity to the health, social and spiritual needs of well, sick, and frail elders, the MI Nursing Restorative Center may occasionally provide direct financial assistance to patients and residents in need who are experiencing economic, medical, or other hardships. These payments are intended to help residents cover basic living expenses, such as clothes, grooming, and other household expenditures that would otherwise present an undue burden for the residents to afford on their own. Relative to the Center's overall budget, such gifts represent a relatively nominal cost for the Organization, and these payments are only provided to residents and patients in need, based upon the Center's assessment of the recipient's financial and bodily health. The Center maintains separate accounts in its books and records to track these payments and to ensure that the gifts are only made when circumstances are appropriate and when funds are available.

Objectives of the analysis are to assess the compositeness of the total cash compensation levels of the senior leadership team, develop market based competitive salary ranges for all executive positions, and ensure that the annual incentive opportunities, if there are any, are competitive and reasonable.
